The 'Father's House Retreat' will consist of several talks, personal prayer, meditations and time for small group discussion. Registration is desired but not required. It helps us plan the materials and set up the room. This is a great opportunity during our Lenten journey. You do not want to miss this retreat!

LADIES OF THE PARISH - mark your calendars for February 26. Fr. Kubat will give a talk about "How to pray in a busy world". The event is at 6:30 to 9:00 pm at St Gianna/Catholic Social services.. PCCW will provide a Java or Gelato for you to enjoy while listening to Fr Kubat. We will also tour Catholic Social Services.

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING OUR 'TASTE & SEE' FUNDRAISER! St. Peter Church and School would like to thank all our generous sponsors, attendees, volunteers and committee members that donated their time, talent and treasure by contributing, planning, organizing, volunteering and attending the event held on Friday, February 1, 2019. Special gratitude to our chairs, Eric and Angie Schafers, and all the specific chairs for their leadership and hard work. Thanks again for making this fundraiser possible. When we all work together we make our parish stronger and build a family that moves us closer to God.

E-TITHING AND ON-LINE GIVING St. Peter Parish offers three methods for tithing: traditional tithing (envelopes and collection basket); e-tithing; and on-line giving. Why should you consider using E-Tithe or On-Line Giving as your donation method? E-Tithing and On-Line Giving (1) helps you prepare and fulfill your personal stewardship plan, (2) allows you to share your generosity efficiently and predictably, and (3) helps reduce administrative costs for the parish associated with the printing and mailing of envelopes (approximately $800/month). Please consider these methods of giving – application forms/instructions are available behind the scrip counter or on-line at www.StPetersLincoln.com under stewardship. Please also know that your gift, no matter what method you choose, is greatly appreciated by our whole parish!

THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS are pleased to recognize Gary Proskovec as Knight of the Month and the Deter family, Tom and Denise, as Family of the Month. Congratulations!!!

FEBRUARY IS CATHOLIC PRESS MONTH. The cost for the Southern Nebraska Register, our diocesan newspaper, is $15.00 per year. An envelope is included in your February packet. Thank you.
